Five Remarkable Women, Four Remarkable PNW Gardens - Donald Olson www.donaldstevenolson.com

In this entertaining and informative presentation, award-winning travel writer and author Donald Olson takes us on a tour of four remarkable Pacific Northwest gardens and introduces us to the five remarkable women who created them. Meet Hulda Klager, a housewife who became one of the world's leading lilac hybridizers; Eulalie Wagner, a socialite who created one of the great estate gardens of Washington State; Elizabeth Lord and Edith Schryver, the first female landscape designers in the Pacific Northwest; and Lilla Leach, an intrepid plant explorer and botanist who founded her own botanical garden.

Donald Olson is author of The Pacific Northwest Garden Tour – The Sixty Best Gardens to Visit in Oregon, Washington and British Columbia, a best-selling guide named by Library Journal as one of the best reference guides of 2014. After his presentation, Donald will be on hand to answer questions and sign copies of The California Garden Tour and its companion volume, The Pacific Northwest Garden Tour. Both will be available for sale. For more info please see the Lectures page.

Congratulations go to Jordis Yost on her Retirement

Jordis has been a friend to the OSU Master Gardener program and our community for the past 22 years. In that time she has touched the lives of each of us - from our early days as trainees to becoming veteran Master Gardeners. Her knowledge, dedication, and patience have been an inspiration for us all. Jordis, we would like to take this time to thank you for your guidance and friendship. It has truly been a pleasure working with you; we wish you the very best as you embark on this next chapter of your life.
